

Wilder Penfield Award

The CLAE is pleased to announce the call for the 2017 Wilder Penfield Gold Medal Award, which has been a tradition for the CLAE since 1982 (See below for prior awardees).

It honours a CLAE member for outstanding lifetime clinical and/or research contributions in epilepsy. Both the nominee and the nominator must be CLAE members in good standing.

The following will be considered when evaluating the nominees:

- Previous awards/honours
- Publication record (as lead or senior author and can include reports if the individual is not a researcher)
- Leadership in the field (invited speaker/moderator, clinical activities, public health, commercialization)
- Professional and other service type activities (e.g. committees, review of manuscripts, review of grants/awards, community involvement in support of epilepsy, etc.)
- Supervisory activities/graduate committees/other training of future leaders in their field.
- Nomination letter

Submission deadline for nomination is Monday September 18, 2017.

Please note: Prior awardees are not eligible to be nominated for the Wilder Penfield Award again.

Nomination package must include:

1. A letter of recommendation (maximum 2 pages) outlining why the nominee is deserving of this award.
2. Nominee's curriculum vitae (CV)
3. Nomination form
